

City of 10,000 Buddhas Weekend

RS 394: CRNs 21442/ 21569/ 21570 Meeting Dates: April 28-April 30

Professor Steve Jenkins slj9@humboldt.edu (please use e-mail only)

Office Hours: Tuesdays 3-5, FH156

Paper Deadline: Friday, May 5 at 4 PM.

Handwritten work is unacceptable.

Show me you did the short readings I send you.

Please remember: This is a college class; write coherently and grammatically.

Typed hard copies, no e-mail submissions and handwritten work is not acceptable.

The absolute deadline is Friday, May 5 at 4 PM.

Put it in the outside drop-box of the English Department Office in Founders Hall Room 201.

Please note that with so many people, I have to be firm about deadlines.

Please write approximately two pages each, for a total of six pages, on the following topics based on the readings I sent you.

Writing Topics

- 1.) Please describe a teaching that you found particularly interesting. Try to describe the teaching accurately (to the best of your ability), but you are also encouraged to describe your response. Perhaps, you found some teaching troubling.
- 2.) Summarize the experience of the two women in Awakening Stories of Zen Buddhist Women, does anything in their stories resonate with your own personal experience?
- 3.) Who is Master Hua and what is the story of this place?

Again, I am so sorry things turned out this way. Please come next time.