

Information Assessment 2

Assessment Type: Research problem, library search and literature review – individual assessment (1,500 words)

Assignment Topic:

The principle of Sustainability is to ensure that all existing resources will be maintained for future generations. Living sustainably is about living within the means of our natural systems or environment and ensuring that our lifestyle does not harm society and culture. Discuss 2 aspects of sustainable living and explore relevant innovations to ensure sustainability.

You must use a minimum of 10 references:

- Text books: At least 2 text books
- 6 different academic journal articles (this can include credible articles from internet sources)
- 2 other source of your choice: Blog, newspaper, magazine or another Internet source
- No more than 1 reference may be general Internet based sources.
- Wikipedia is not to be used and does not count as an academic reference.