

Project Assignment: June 2, 2016
MAN410

- Select <sup>one</sup> ~~two~~ scholarly written articles on the topic of “Expatriate Employees Status Abroad issues.”
- Selected scholarly article (research study) must be from any Human Resource Management, Workforce, Training and Development, Journal of International Business Studies, HRMagazine, Journal of Leadership & Organizational Studies, Academy of Business Executive, Journal of Applied Psychology, Singapore Management Review, Human Resource Development, Journal of Diversity Management, etc. Articles from newspapers are not accepted.
- Each article must be reviewed, typed and double-spaced (two pages maximum.)
- Attach copies of each article you have selected for review (including references of the articles) to your reviewed paper. No exceptions!
- Publication of Articles must be current (2015 and after are acceptable).
- Your project will be due on or before March 23, 2017.
- Essential point of departure question: What is the author's purpose? What are the author's central arguments or conclusions? Are they clearly stated? Are they supported by evidence and analysis?
- The project is worth 25 points.