Assignment 3: Film Argument Essay

DUE: by 11:59 pm on Sunday of Week 7.

Directions

1. Create your 750-1250 word essay on the film assigned to your group. Your essay must have a strong argument thesis that asserts the connections between the American Dream theme and the film. The essay must use correct formatting according to MLA in terms of spacing, heading, font, indenting, in-text citation, works cited, etc. For help with how to formulate an argument or correct formatting see Argument in the Unit/General Resources tab at left.
2. Save your file as an .RTF format and submit as an attachment using the BLUE link above. Be sure to click the Submit button or I won't receive your file. When I have finished grading your essay, you may view my comments by re- clicking the link above

Purpose

This assignment requires you to use all of the skills you have been developing to analyze multiple texts, develop and support an argument, follow a process for writing, and use and cite sources properly.

Grading

I will grade your essay on the quality of the argument you construct. I will look for well supported claims as well as relevant evidence to support your claims. In addition, I will take into account accuracy of in-text citations, works cited entries, and the general criteria for writing assignments. (100 points).
