

➡ Rubric for Case Study 1

Name: _____

Criteria	Excellent – 4 Corresponds to A	Good – 3 Corresponds to B	Inadequate – 2 Corresponds to C	Poor – 1/0 Corresponds to D/F
Structure ▶ Well-crafted paragraphs	Clear & compelling paragraph structure with well-developed and well-supported topic sentence.	Paragraph structure discernable but argument and/or topic sentence in need of development.	Paragraph structure and/or topic sentences unfocused or insufficient to develop argument.	Absence of topic sentences and lack of focus in paragraphs.
Use of evidence ▶ Understanding of globalization	Clear & compelling evidence of critical thinking about required reading & class discussion of trends in globalization.	Basic familiarity with required reading & class discussion of trends in globalization.	Insufficient evidence of critical thinking about required reading & class discussion.	Absence of critical thinking about required reading & class discussion.
Ethics of authorship ▶ Professional approach to writing	Written in your own words with supporting evidence from sources used selectively & concisely to support key points.	Written mostly in your own words, but tendency to rely on paraphrase or quotations from other sources to make key points.	Weak authorship; extensive use of other sources to carry the argument.	Lack of authorship; overreliance on close paraphrase and quotations.
MLA format ▶ Skill-building for final project	Writing applies three criteria identified for this assignment: 12-point, double-spaced, Times New Roman font.	Writing applies two criteria identified for this assignment: 12-point, double-spaced, Times New Roman font.	Writing applies one criterion identified for this assignment: 12-point, double-spaced, Times New Roman font.	Writing applies none of the criteria identified for this assignment: 12-point, double-spaced, Times New Roman font.

Comments: