Guidelines & Suggestions for: How to Write Career Paper

When writing an investigative and descriptive essay about the career you wish to pursue, there are several key elements that should be covered in order to provide a comprehensive view of how you envision your future. You have a choice as to how you will structure your two (2) page, seven (7) paragraph, double-spaced paper.

In conjunction with this partial autobiographical yet futuristic vision of your academic, personal and professional plan for success, please include at least three (3) out of the following six (6) options to support your paper. ****Provide materials that demonstrates your comprehension of the nature of your chosen career, the realistic path or preparation required to master the real challenges of someone in that profession, an assessment of how well you "fit" the expectations of your chosen endeavor and the rewards you hope to receive along the way.

Choices/ Options

- Timeline of major life events
- Excerpt from a published job description
- Article that describes position expectations, demands, rewards
- Personal letter to relevant employer
- Current (correctly formatted) resume
- Assessment and description of your Holland's code
