

Required Uniform Assignment: National Patient Safety Goals

PURPOSE

This exercise is designed to increase the students' awareness of the National Patient Safety Goals developed by The Joint Commission. Specifically, this assignment will introduce the Speak Up Initiatives, an award-winning patient safety program designed to help patients promote their own safety by proactively taking charge of their healthcare.

COURSE OUTCOMES

This assignment enables the student to meet the following course outcomes.

- CO #2: Apply the concepts of health promotion and illness prevention in the laboratory setting. (PO #2)
- CO #8: Explain the rationale for selected nursing interventions based upon current nursing literature. (PO #8)

DUE DATE

Week 6

Campus: As directed by your faculty member

Online: As directed by your faculty member

POINTS

50 points

REQUIREMENTS

1. Select a Speak Up brochure developed by The Joint Commission. Follow this link to the proper website: http://www.jointcommission.org/topics/speakup\_brochures.aspx.
2. Write a short paper reviewing the brochure. Use the Grading Criteria (below) to structure your critique, and include current nursing or healthcare research to support your critique.
  - a. The length of the paper is to be no greater than three pages, double spaced, excluding title page and reference page. Extra pages will not be read and will not count toward your grade.
3. This assignment will be graded on quality of information presented, use of citations, and use of Standard English grammar, sentence structure, and organization based on the required components.
4. Create the review using Microsoft Word 2007 (a part of Microsoft Office 2007), the required format for all Chamberlain documents. You can tell that the document is saved as a MS Word 2007 document because it will end in ".docx."
5. Any questions about this paper may be discussed in the weekly Q & A Forum in your online course or directly with your faculty member if you are taking NR224 on campus.
6. APA format is required with both a title page and reference page. Use the required components of the review as Level 1 headers (upper- and lowercase, bold, centered).
  - a. Introduction
  - b. Summary of Brochure
  - c. Evaluation of Brochure
  - d. Conclusion

PREPARING THE PAPER

The following are the best practices in preparing this paper.

- 1) Read the brochure carefully and take notes. Highlighting important points has been helpful to many students.

2) Title page: Include title of your paper, your name, Chamberlain College of Nursing, NR224 Fundamentals—Skills, faculty name, and the date. Center all items between the left and right margins, beginning approximately 3 inches from the top margin.

NOTE: This style of cover page is required by the college and is a variance of APA formatting.

3) Use the CCN library or online library to find current nursing research that supports your findings.

4) The brochure you select must be properly cited in the body of your paper and on the reference list.

DIRECTIONS AND GRADING CRITERIA

Category	Points	%	Description
Introduction	3	6	This first part of your paper should be one paragraph that includes the brochure title, date published, and your understanding of who the information would benefit.
Summary of the brochure's recommendations	10	20	Summary of brochure must include <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. main topics discussed; and</li> <li>2. how communication between patients and healthcare providers is encouraged.</li> </ol>
Evaluation of the brochure	20	40	Critique the brochure. Include a full one- to two-page critique that answers all of the following questions. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What was done well, and what could have been improved in the brochure?</li> <li>2. Why did this topic interest you?</li> <li>3. Was the information provided in the brochure beneficial? Could you incorporate it in your patient education?</li> <li>4. Was the information presented clearly?</li> <li>5. Did current nursing or healthcare related research support the information presented in the brochure?</li> <li>6. What population or individuals does this article apply to (i.e., who will benefit the most from this brochure)? Who else can use this information?</li> <li>7. Will this information increase patient safety? Defend your answer.</li> </ol>
Conclusion	5	10	An effective conclusion identifies the main ideas and major support points from the body of your report. Minor details are left out. Summarize the benefits of following the brochure's advice to a person at risk.
Clarity of writing	10	20	Use Standard English grammar and sentence structure. No spelling or typographical errors (typos) are present. The paper is organized around required components, using appropriate headers.
APA format	2	4	All information taken from another source, even if summarized, must be cited in the paper and listed in the references using (APA sixth ed.) format. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Document setup</li> <li>2. Title and reference pages.</li> <li>3. Citations in the text and reference page.</li> </ol>
Total	50	100%

GRADING RUBRIC

Assignment Criteria	Outstanding or Highest Level of Performance A (92–100%)	Very Good or High Level of Performance B (84–91%)	Competent or Satisfactory Level of Performance C (76–83%)	Poor, Failing or Unsatisfactory Level of Performance F (0–75%)
Introduction 3 points	Introduction provides a full and complete identification of the brochure, including the brochure title, date published, and understanding of who the information would benefit.	3 points		Partial identification of required elements OR introduction contains no required elements OR no introduction 0–2 points
Summary of the article 10 points	Summary is complete and thoroughly covers all required elements.  10 points	Summary is complete and is missing no more than one required element.  9 points	Summary is complete and is missing no more than two required elements.  8 points	Summary is incomplete or not included and is missing more than one required element.  0–7 points
Evaluation of the Article 20 points	Critique of article demonstrates critical thinking and answers all required questions and supported findings with current nursing research.  19–20 points	Critique demonstrates basic understanding of article, answers all but one of the required questions, and/or does not support findings with current research.  17–18 points	Critique demonstrates basic understanding of article, answers all but two or three of the required questions, and/or does not support findings with current research.  16 points	The critique of the article is poor, lacks critical or original thinking, and fails to answer two or more questions  0–15 points
Conclusion 5 points	Original explanation is well evidenced and developed.  5 points	Original explanation is present and well evidenced, yet not well developed.  4.5 points	Original explanation is present, though not well evidenced or developed.  4 points	Conclusion is omitted OR no original explanation is present in conclusion.  0–3 points
Clarity of writing 10 points	Paper has excellent use of Standard English, showing original thought, has no spelling or grammar errors, and is well organized.  10 points	Paper has some evidence of own expression and competently uses language, no more than two spelling or grammar errors, and is well organized.  9 points	Paper has some evidence of own expression and competently uses language, no more than four spelling or grammar errors, and is well organized.  8 points	Language needs development. There are five or more spelling and/or grammar errors, and paper is poorly organized.  0–7 points
APA format 2 points	Paper correctly follows APA format with no more than two types of errors.  2 points		Paper has three to five errors in APA format, grammar, spelling, and syntax and/or one–two citations are missing.  1 point	APA, grammar, spelling and/or punctuation contain multiple errors and/or many citations are missing.  0 points
Total Points Possible = 50 points				